Bamboo Symphony Series

Life is full of surprises! Our R&D team at AGO has revolutionized production techniques to create this extraordinary crossover collection - Bamboo Symphony. More than just plastic rattan, this is a heterogeneous. The more innovative something is, the fewer people know how to use it, and the more it makes the product stand out.

The Bamboo Symphony looks like a chaotic tangle of vines, but it's an orderly, flat bundle that can be easily twisted or woven, making it perfect for holiday gift displays. In addition to holiday gifts, the Bamboo Pith series is also an eye-catching focal point for lighting, storage, screens and more.
